1. The following observations were made at Brandenburg-Arado airfield between 24 October and 2 November 1953:

24 and 25 October. Eighteen Il-10s were parked on the eastern edge of the field. From 35 to 40 soldiers did maintenance work on the aircraft. No air activity was observed.

26 October. Throughout the day, there was little air activity by Il-10s.

27 October. Little air activity was observed in the morning. Between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m., several Il-10s landed at the field, coming from the southwest.

28 October. Between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., 6 to 8 Il-10s circled widely over the field.

29 October. No air activity was observed at the field. It rained. Thirty-eight canvas-covered ground attack aircraft were parked on the eastern edge.

30 October to 2 November. There was no air activity. It rained intermittently.

2. The following air activity and aircraft were observed at the field between 30 October and 10 November:

30 October. At about 10 a.m., 23 Il-10s were counted at the field.

3 November. Between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m., local individual flights were made by ground attack aircraft. There was a closed ceiling, and it rained intermittently.

6 November. No air activity was observed at 3 p.m. There was dull weather.

9 November. At 3 p.m., 24 canvas-covered Il-10s were parked at their previous dispersal areas.
